Anyone else thought that the lighting was a little too bright? The entire show seems to be on a set of strobes. They were very distracting. Especially when she reached the point of her first "squeel"! Didn't she cry (on stage) before the last episode? More like a wah-wah. _____ Sat Apr 13, 2010 11:32 am SunWukong Phalon Master Joined: Thu May 09, 2009 7:10 am Posts: 396 Re: Series Finale: Revenge of the Sith!!! I'm disappointed, but not too much. I thought The Clone Wars could've ran another season, but I don't think any of the fans did. What I've already heard from other fans is that the show looked fantastic and was great entertainment. _____ Life should not be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in an attractive and well preserved body, but rather to skid in sideways, wine in one hand, body fully used up, totally worn out, and screaming "WHOO-H 648931e174

DespiteÂ .Hangal: a prequel to the M.O.D. of Iraq Rajiv Chandrasekhar has played an important role in the civil society of India. He is also an extremely vocal critic of the current government of the day. He is therefore a very valuable asset. In fact, he has now become an ideal fit for the leader of the opposition in the ruling UPA. He is on a mission to not only keep the government of the day in check and expose its failures, but also ensure that the record of its rule is completely wiped out in the 2014 general elections. Chandrasekhar was a pre-requisite of the Congress party given its alliance with the Jharkhand Mukti Morcha and the Janata Dal (United). Chandrasekhar is a Member of Parliament (MP) from Bengaluru Central Parliamentary Constituency, representing the Indian National Congress. He is also a recipient of the Bharat Ratna. The announcement was made by the Government of India on Wednesday (November 20, 2012) with regard to the joint reception ceremony for the awardees. The preliminary entry list of the Bharat Ratna winners, announced on Wednesday, does not include India's first woman-soldier Sita Devi, who was among those who won the award on January 26. In fact, her name is missing from the list, but that is hardly surprising for a woman who has spent her entire life on the India-Pakistan border. She took the name of Sita Devi after the birth of her son and has been representing Indian forces ever since. A nation is an entity with a common goal, a common goal of freedom and a common goal of peace. It is a nation in which the people live in unity and harmony. Hindutva is the future of Hindusthan. It has become a reality of today. The Hindutva spirit is immortal. Hindutva is the culture and culture is Hindutva. The sole purpose of life is to enjoy it and make others enjoy it. The concept
