I have this problem with Hamburg. Former Bellator middleweight contender Lorenz Larkin is coming off an impressive win in his last outing at Rizin FF, but he won't be a part of DREAM's future promotion. The 28-year-old middleweight announced his departure from the company today on Twitter. "No more @bellator," Larkin stated. "Rizin japan owners requested to have a meeting to discuss my future, they told me to sign a new contract so they have the right to pull me out of my contract. “thank you to all fans, supporters and @bellator management team that helped me achieve my dreams!” Speaking of which, Larkin revealed that he signed a multi-year contract with Rizin that had he still been a part of the company. “Got a million dollar contract and those talks are still going on with the owners,” he said. “I do plan on sticking with it for the long run though and my name will still be out there.” Larkin has largely been idle c6a93da74d
